FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(11 U.S.C. § 548—Fraudulent Transfer)

9. Trustee incorporates by reference the allegations contained in the prior paragraphs.

10. Under section 544(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, the “trustee may avoid any transfer of an interest of the debtor in property or any obligation incurred by the debtor that is voidable under applicable law by a creditor holding an unsecured claim.”

11. Under section 544(b)(2), the “trustee may avoid any interest of an interest of the debtor in property . . . that is voidable under applicable law by a creditor holding an unsecured claim that is allowable under section 502 . . . or that is not allowable only under section 502(e) of this title.”

12. Under the UVTA, Utah Code Ann. § 25-6-202(1)(b) and section 548(a)(1)(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtor may avoid any transfer made without receiving a reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the transfer or obligation, and the debtor:

- (i) was engaged or was about to engage in a business or a transaction for which the remaining assets of the debtor were unreasonably small in relation to the business or transaction; or

- (ii) intended to incur, or believed or reasonably should have believed that the debtor would incur, debts beyond the debtor's ability to pay as they became due.

Utah Code Ann. § 25-6-202(1)(b).

13. Alternatively, under Utah Code Ann. § 25-6-203(1), a transfer made or obligation incurred by a debtor is voidable as to a creditor whose claim arose before the transfer was made or the obligation was incurred if:

- (a) the debtor made the transfer or incurred the obligation without receiving a reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the transfer or obligation; and
- (b) the debtor was insolvent at the time or became insolvent as a result of the transfer or obligation.

14. The Debtor's creditors held undisputed antecedent debts against the Debtor before, during, and after each of the Transfers. Such creditors hold unsecured claims allowable under 11 U.S.C. § 502 or that is not allowable only under 11 U.S.C. § 502(e).

15. The Debtor received less than a reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the Transfers.

16. The services, goods or other value allegedly provided by Defendant were not of a reasonably equivalent value to the Debtor for the Transfers.

17. The Transfers were made (a) at a time when the Debtor was engaged or was about to engage in business and transactions for which the remaining assets of the Debtor were unreasonably small in relation to the business and transactions, (b) at a time when the Debtor intended to incur, or believed or should reasonably have believed that it would incur, debts beyond its ability to pay as they became due, (c) at a time when the Debtor was insolvent or (d) with the result that the Debtor became insolvent as a result of the Transfers.

18. As such, the Transfers are fraudulent transfers under 11 U.S.C. § 548 and the UFTA, and should be avoided such that the Transfers are transferred back to the Trustee for the benefit of the bankruptcy estate under 11 U.S.C. §§ 550 and 551 as applicable.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(11 U.S.C. §§ 550 & 551—Transferee Liability and Preservation)

19. Trustee incorporates by reference the allegations contained in the prior paragraphs.

20. The Defendant is the initial transferee of the Transfers.

21. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 550, the Trustee may recover from the Defendant the Transfers to such Defendant or their value.

22. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 551, the Transfers are preserved for the benefit of the Estate.

THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(11 U.S.C. §§ 542—Turnover)

23. Trustee incorporates by reference the allegations contained in the prior paragraphs.

24. To the extent that the Defendant is in possession or control of the funds transferred and such Transfers are avoided, such funds are property of the Estate (the “Funds”).

25. The Estate’s interest in the Funds is property that the Trustee may use under 11 U.S.C. § 363. The Estate’s interest in the funds is property that is not of inconsequential value.

26. The Trustee is entitled to a judgment ordering Defendant to turn over the Estate’s interest in the Funds with no reduction for any dissipation or transfers of the Funds from the Petition Date to the present.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(11 U.S.C. §§ 502(d)—Disallowance of Claims)

27. Trustee incorporates by reference the allegations contained in the prior paragraphs.

28. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502, any and all claims of Defendant against the Estate must be disallowed until such time as Defendant pays to the Trustee the amounts equal to the value of the Transfers.

REQUEST FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Trustee requests entry of a judgment in its favor against the Defendant as follows:

- a. For avoidance of the Transfers;
- b. For recovery of the Transfers or the value of the Transfers against Defendant and any of his mediate or immediate transferees;
- c. To the extent Defendant has possession or control of the Funds, ordering Defendant to turn over the Funds with no reduction for any dissipation or transfer from the time Defendant received the Funds to the present;
- d. Disallowing any claims of Defendant if Defendant refuses to turn over the value of the Transfers to the Trustee.
- e. For pre- and post-petition interest on the amounts owed by Defendant to the full extent allowed under applicable law at the highest legal rate; and
- f. For an award of costs and fees incurred in bringing this Complaint.
